FIRST DEPARTMENT MEETING

AIRPORT LAKES HOLIDAY INN CHOSEN AS SITE FOR JANUARY DINNER MEETING

In its first organizational meeting, the Florida Department of the Korean War Veterans Association will meet at the Airport Lakes Holiday Inn (see map inside), 1101 N.W. 57 Avenue on January 26, 1989.

The guest speaker for the event will be the Turkish community leader in Florida, Mahmut E. Ozan, who will welcome Florida's entry into the KWVA nationally. He will speak on the role of the Turkish Brigade in the Korean War, one of the most feared fighting units there.

The agenda will include establishment of policies and procedures that will govern our organization, future meetings, fund-raising for our Memorial in Washington, D.C., and service activities to assist less fortunate Korean War veterans, orphans and widows.

The activities will begin at 7:30 with a cash bar and dinner will be promptly at 8:00. Roast beef is on the menu (but anyone with dietary problems will be accommodated). The price is $9.95 plus tax and gratuity. You cannot eat anywhere in Dade County for less. PLEASE BRING YOUR WIFE. Many ladies will be in attendance.

Treasurer Edward "Ted" Magill will be formally sworn in.

Please call 255-6355 with your desire to attend. We must know by Monday the 23rd what the head count will be since we have a guarantee to meet.
